

S. Fae Wiedenhoeft

Syren's Voice Studio • 806 237th Street SE • Bothell, Washington 98021 • Phone 918.231.6413
syrensvoice.jetbutterfly.com • Email jetbutterfly@gmail.com

Objective:

To enlighten, encourage, and stimulate the creative process in students who colourfully dwell in the worlds of music, theatrics and film.

Experience:

2003 - Present Private Instruction of Singing/Songwriting/Bodhran/Guitar

Lessons include the stepping stones to singing: breath control, projection, stylized techniques & genres such as purl a beul & musical theatre; songwriting basics; Celtic rhythms and techniques for the bodhran (the Celtic hoop drum); beginning guitar for students who wish to learn basic chord formations for playing and singing tunes; performance coaching; monologue and audition coaching.

1994 - Present Professional Singer/Songwriter/Performer/Actress

Chicago ~ Performed with the Midwestern Summer Stock Theatre Company; performed in several community theatre productions; performed and conducted vocal workshops at the Old Town School for Folk Music; participated in commercial work including voiceovers for animated specials.

Canada ~ Performed throughout Vancouver Island and the lower mainland of British Columbia including three consecutive summers at the world famous Bucharth Gardens with, West Coast Celtic band, Kitangus; recorded and toured with Celtic duo, Syren; composed original music as well as performed on 5 CDs recorded, manufactured, and sold in Canada entitled: Myriad, "Song of the Isles"; Syren, "Waves to the Sky" and "Invitation"; Cauldron, "After the Mad King Dies"; Kitangus, "Into the West".

Tulsa ~ Performed at many venues including the Tulsa Performing Arts Center; featured performer at the 2005 Blue November MicroFilmFest after party; maintained a monthly performance at Saffron Coffee & Art; recorded, manufactured, and released first solo live album entitled "The Saffron Sessions" in spring of 2006.

Seattle ~ Featured performer at the 2006 - 10 Blue November MicroFilmFest after parties, 4 years at Northwest FolkLife; has performed throughout the Pacific NorthWest, Chicago, Tulsa, and Canada with her band SeaStar since 2007; since 2007 has recorded, composed, and released 4 solo albums, "February Fog", "The Branch Above", "Lost But Not Forgotten", "Hope", and 4 albums with SeaStar, "SeaStar Blue", "SeaStar RPM", "Almost Home", and "Home".

Education:

Certified Musikgarten Teacher Seattle, Washington

Family Music: Babies & Toddlers; Cycles of the Seasons: Music Makers Home/Around the world.

Roosevelt University Chicago, Illinois

B.F.A., Theatre Performance, minor in music; graduated with honors

Member of the Franklin Honor Society

Chicago Musical College Chicago, Illinois

Private Voice Lessons with Louise Parkin

Lou Conte School of Dance Chicago, Illinois

Ballet, Tap, Modern

Interesting Facts:

When I was a child, I'd serenade the squirrels! I am a listener, a life-long learner, and a believer that cartwheels and lemonade stands should still make us laugh. I truly believe that music heals the world. For this, I will sing and sing and sing... everyday!